Morning English classes

To immerse students in NYC life and culture, our classes take place throughout the city, in Dumbo (Brooklyn), Essex Market (Lower East Side), Brookfield Place (Battery Park), Industry City (Brooklyn) and Bryant Park (Midtown). Instead of being in a room with 4 walls, the city becomes the students' classroom! The locations have been carefully chosen based on comfort, space, ease of access, points of interest close by, proximity of public restrooms...

Our classes are rich in cultural content and conversation with an added interactive approach to learning English. In addition to completing homework, book assignments, participating in pair work and discussion, just like in a regular classroom setting, students get the added bonus of learning about NYC in truly authentic NYC settings.

Our teachers are qualified, experienced, and use an action-based, communicative method to encourage students to interact and use the language as much as possible. There is a maximum of 8 students per class, grouped together according to level.

Afternoon program

The afternoon program is divided between a music component and activities to discover NYC. The music component takes place at the Brooklyn Music School, where students will receive instruction in a small group of max 12 students, from teaching artists in different genres (Rock, Jazz, World Music) for 7.5 hours per week (3 afternoons). Students do not need to bring an instrument and do not need to have a background in music. All levels in music will be accepted.

On the other 2 afternoons (Tuesdays and Thursdays), students will join the NYC Discovery program, and will also take part in the full-day excursion by ferry to the Statue of Liberty & Ellis Island on Saturday.

Accommodation is in twin rooms, full-board, with another EO student of the same gender and different nationality.
