

EO LOCATION GUIDE – COBBLE HILL PARK

A BIT OF HISTORY

Cobble Hill was originally settled during the 1640s by Dutch farmers. Beginning in the 1840s and progressing into the 1870s, wealthier Manhattanites, including bankers and merchants, began to move to various parts of Brooklyn, including Cobble Hill. By 1880, the population of the area was solidly upper-middle class.

The formal, geometric pattern of present-day Cobble Hill Park utilizes 19th-century period materials such as blue stone and cast iron as well as granite entrance columns and herringbone-patterned brick walkways.

THE ESSENTIALS

Morning coffee

- Swallow Cafe
- Lá Vara Saint Julivert
- Octavia Coffee

Lunch options

- Bareburger
- Sweetgreen
- Kitchen at Cobble Hill

Something sweet!

- Van Leeuwens Ice Cream
- Charlotte Patisserie

Grocery stores & pharmacies

- Union market
- Trader Joe's
- Duane Reade

Nearest subway stations & lines

- Bergen Street (F, G), 6 min walk
- Borough Hall (2, 3, 4, 5) 11 min walk
- Court Street (R) 12 min walk

(public restrooms not available on site)

PLACES TO VISIT NEARBY

Brooklyn Bridge Park Pier 6 – Court Street/Smith Street – Brooklyn Heights Promenade – Brooklyn Heights

3 COOL THINGS TO DO AFTER YOUR ENGLISH CLASS

1. Explore the beautiful neighborhoods of Cobble Hill and Boerum Hill. It has some lovely blocks on it including Bergen and Dean streets between Smith St and Nevins St. There are also plenty of shops on Court and Smith to dip into. Try Van Leeuwens ice cream shop for a treat, or an early dinner at Rucola, an excellent neighborhood Italian restaurant.
2. Walk westwards for about 30 mins until you reach 5th Avenue in Park Slope. Another great neighborhood to explore, especially 5th and 7th avenues, and Prospect Park. If you have time, don't miss seeing the Prospect Park boathouse.
3. Head north towards Atlantic Avenue, and on into Brooklyn Heights, yet another beautiful neighborhood to explore! There are so many lovely tree lined streets here. Make sure you head towards the famous Brooklyn Heights Promenade for a great view of downtown Manhattan as the sun drops down in the sky.