

EO LOCATION GUIDE – INDUSTRY CITY

A BIT OF HISTORY

Formerly titled Bush Terminal, Industry City is a collection of enormous warehouses in Sunset Park, Brooklyn, located on what was once part of the waterfront's intermodal shipping, warehouse, and manufacturing complex. Like Chelsea Market, each warehouse still pays homage to its industrial roots with exposed piping and heavy iron doors.

It is a one-stop destination of experiences, eateries, events and everything in between. An historic intermodal city, built on 35 acres of repurposed industrial space. The waterfront green spaces, immersive retail, and public art installations make for an entire day of discovery. The diverse mix of culture and locally born businesses is as authentic a New York experience as it gets. No visit to Industry City is ever the same.

3 COOL THINGS TO DO AFTER YOUR ENGLISH CLASS

1. It's worth hanging out at Industry City for a while after your class and exploring the different buildings. There are some great shops and restaurants etc. You may even catch a live music show if you stay long enough. In the winter they also have an ice rink. Once done, it's worth walking 20 mins to see the famous Greenwood cemetery.
2. After class, walk up to the 36th street subway station and take the N and then the R to Union Street. From here you can spend the afternoon exploring Park Slope which is a lovely Brooklyn neighborhood. You can also visit Prospect Park.
3. After class, walk up to the 36th street and take the N and then the R to Court Street. From here, it is the perfect location to explore another great neighborhood, Brooklyn Heights. Don't miss great views of the city from the Brooklyn Heights Promenade, best seen at the end of the day!
